From the Pastor

How is your prayer life during the summer? Many have a change of routine during the summer months, and with a change of routine can often bring about a change in prayer routine as well. Many wonder why the prayer life they developed over the nine months of the school year suddenly diminishes. This is more than likely the reason and it is normal. It takes being more aware of these changes and making a more concerted effort to keep up with prayer in the midst of change. We had a saying in seminary, “there is no vacation from your vocation.” Meaning just because the mind might be taking a break, the soul never does, and if you allow it, bad things happen. If you find yourself in this position at this point, I encourage you to swallow the humble pill and make the effort to find a routine to get your spiritual life back on track. It might take a little more work, but it will be worth it in the end, and be a way to learn how to adjust spiritual routines for the good in the future.
