From the Pastor

This year for our Lenten Study (times TBD), we will be walking through the book “Jesus of Nazareth: Holy Week – From the Entrance of Jerusalem to the Resurrection” by Joseph Ratzinger aka Pope Benedict XVI. It is an intellectual book and deep, but at the same time is incredibly interesting, at least to me. If you want would like a book, please sign up at the entrance of the church. This book is also available on Kindle and audiobook for free on Formed.org if you prefer these instead of a physical book. This will be a great way to prepare ourselves for the Holiest Week of the year in a couple months.

Immaculee Ilibagiza will be the main speaker for a one-day retreat in Hoxie on Saturday, March 25th. If you have not heard her story, it is incredible. She is a survivor of the 1994 Rwandan Massacre, living in a bathroom for several weeks until she was finally rescued. This is a unique opportunity and would highly recommend that you go. Tickets prices are $57 for one or $76 for two. Please register at www.immaculee.com. For more information please see the flyers posted in the church at all entrances.

Thank you to all who made Catholic Schools week a success. I have said it many times before, I am continually humbled by the support this community gives to St. Joseph Catholic School. Thank you to Michelle Selzer for her leadership as principal, to our teachers, staff, students and patrons. All of you make this school the success that it is today. Thank you!
