The Mass Explained: By Cormac Burke

The purposes of the Mass

Sorrow for one's sin: The Mass is a sacrifice offered for the forgiveness of sins. We would not have proper dispositions for taking part in the Mass if we were not aware of our sins and sorry for them. That is why, as soon as the Mass has begun, the priest invites each one of us to call our sins to mind. And all of us pray together, acknowledging that we have sinned through our own fault in our thoughts and words, in what have done and failed to do. If you are not sorry for your sins you will never attend Mass well. Think at the moment therefore about your sins and your acts of selfishness, and ask Blessed Mary ever Virgin, and all the angels and saints, to pray for you and help you to be very sorry for those faults of yours which, even if they are not very grave, nevertheless disfigure the soul.

ST. JOSEPH CYO: Our St. Joseph CYO youth are on the road to growing their faith! In November, they'll be traveling from Oakley, Kansas, to Indianapolis, Indiana, to attend the National Catholic Youth Conference. NCYC is a life-changing weekend of worship, community, and growing closer to Christ. We're inviting our parish to help "Fuel Our Faith" by joining our latest fundraiser!

Here's how it works:
 -Pick one (or more!) numbers from our Fuel Our Faith board.
 Tell Bryn Kuhlman your number (you can call or text (913) 660-3805).
 -Each number costs $20.
 Pay Bryn Kuhlman with a check (made out to St. Joseph CYO), cash, or Venmo(BGkuhlman).

When all numbers are sold (or by November 18th), we'll draw one lucky number to win $200! Every donation helps Our teens experience NCYC, a powerful journey that deepens their faith and connects them with thousands of Catholic youth from across the country.

Thank you for helping us "fill our bus" and Fuel Our Faith!
